

A GREAT ROMANCE OF MOTHER LOVE

KATANANGKAN INGKATAKANGKAN BILIBINANGKANGKANGKANGKANGKA By Forrest Halsey

ning during his tour of Bosnia, which he undertook as Inspector-General of the forces of the empire, a title which been conferred upon him last year by Emperor Francis Joseph. His chief task was to inspect the Austrian army which had guarded the Servian frontier during the recent Balkan wars and prevented any encroachments by Servian troops. The Servian Minister at Vienna told Francis Ferdinand of the peril of his visit to Sarayevo at the present time and implored him, even if he insisted on going there himself, at least to leave the Duchess at home.

When the Duchess of Hohenberg was informed of the dangerous nature of the journey the Archduke was bout to take she said her place wa at her husband's side.

When the Archduke and the Duchess arrived at Sarajevo on Saturday some signs of hositility were shown by the Serb portion of the population and only just before the couple used through the city the authorities ded in getting rid of a great disof Servian flags which the people had hoisted instead of flying the Aus-

The plans of the assassins contemplated the blowing up of the royal train when the Archduke and his wife were leaving Sarajevo in case the attempt by Gavrio Prinzip failed.

It was learned to-day that several bombs had been found along the Princip made his own plans carefully. He secreted himself behind a building at a spot where it was necessary for the Archduke's car to sincken speed, and some accounts of the crime say that Prinsip actually stood on the start a demonstration.

They were joined by a number of Croatian students and the crowd pass-active personalities ". Europe and his wife.

Against all these carefully laid plans of the criminals the extraordinary precautions taken by the aumarderers guessed rightly that the arradules would not be frightened cross constructions. Creatian students and the crowd passed along the streets storing the windows of Servian shops, clubs, schools and houses and looting the interiors.

They paraded the streets with a portrait of the Emperor Francis Joseph at their head. They sang the Austrian national anthem and attacked everything Servian until they were confronted by an overwhelming force of soldiers. Archdules would not be frightened ate giving up his programme after the first bomb bad falled.

In Prinzip's rooms the police today found a large sum of money which, they say, is further proof that be was a paid assassin of some Her-

The Archduke and the Duchess left Vienna last Wednesday for their first ial visit to the capital of Bosnia They first attended military mansuvree at Ilidas, and yesterday morning reached Sarajevo and started out in automobiles with their retimue to attend a reception in their coor at the Town Hall.

They stopped to make a brief intion of the Girls' High School. and it was as they were about to on the Archduke's life with a bomb. Nadeljo Gabrinovice, a young fanatic, d suddenly out and hurled the metal filings and other missiles. STRUCK ASIDE BOMB WHICH INJURES OTHERS.

The Archduke saw it, and standing us to protect his consort, struck it aside with his arm. It fail in the street and exploded just as the next ers of the royal suite, Col. Morisal and Count Boos Waldeck, and from a desen to a score of spectators, were

According to one version the Archduke calmly got out of his car and rest back to see how badly his ds were hurt. His wife begged m not to continue the trip, but he cave orders to have the wounded rly attended to, and proceeded to the Town Hall, where the Mayor tarted to read his address of wel-

The Archduke, however, interrupt of the proceedings to exclaim:

What is the good of your speeches? I come to Sarajevo on a visit and I get bombs thrown at me. It is outrageous!" Then, after a pause, be said: "Now you may speak."

The reception ceremony was overowed by the bomb explosion, and His Royal Highness was still indigsant when the time came to leave. The Duchess endeavored to restrain her husband from getting into the aulle again, but the Governor of tomobile again, but the Governor of Bosnia, Gen. Potiorek said:

"It's all over now. We have not got

At this the Archduke decided to enproceeded along the Appel Quay another bomb was thrown. It failed to

MARINEN AND STATE OF THE STATE

der's bullets was explained by the extreme closeness of the range, pro-

"The Duchess of Hohenberg collapsed against her husband and Field Marshal Oskar Pottorek thought she had merely fainted from the shock. He was strength-ened in this belief by the fact that the Archduke and Duchess exchanged a few words in a low voice.

"It was not until the Field Marshal turned round after giving instructions to the chauffeur to proceed to the Governor's palace that he noticed the Archduke, while still sitting quietly upright, was bleeding.

"When the car stopped before the palace the Duchess was unconscious. After she had been lifted from the car the Archduke collapsed in the seat.

"The Archduke died about a quarter of an bour afterward and a few minutes later the Duchess expired without either of them regaining consciousness."

A report was current here to-day that the Archduke's last words to his wife were: "Sopbie, live for our children."

The fact that the Duchess collapsed

The fact that the Duchess collapsed against her husband was probably responsible for the story that she threw her arms around his neck.

YOUTH HURLS BOMB STARTS BIG RIOT AT BOSNIAN CAPITAL

SARAJEVO, June 29.-A bomb thrown by a youth standing on a cor-Sarajevo Railway, over which the ner of the main etreet of the Bosnian Archduke and his wife must have capital was the signal to-day for a serious anti-Servian outbreak which the troops found considerable difficulty in quelling.

The only damage done by the bomb was a silent injury to a passing Mus-sulman, but the rougher element selzed on the incident as an excuse to orce of soldiers.

Martial law was proclaimed by beat and drum and the posting of pla-cards. All the chief points of the city were immediately occupied by troops.

EUROPEAN PRESS SHOWS BITTERNESS OVER ASSASSINATION.

ST. PETERSBURG. June 29.-The omments of the Russian press to-day on the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his consort reflect the bitterness of the anti-Austrian sentiment of the Russian nation.

Some of the newspapers refer to the assassination as "an opportunity for Austria to change her course" and they declare that the murdered Archduke "bore in himself the spark which was to kindle a European conflagration." June 29.—The hing explosive, which contained at filings and other missies.

HUCK ASIDE SOMS WHICH Germany of their strongest friend.

Diplomats here generally declare the tragedy makes the future of Central Europe dark and uncertain, as the new heir to the Austrian throne. Archduke Charles, is young and in-experienced, a wholly unknown quan-

LONDON, June 29.—"The passing of Franz Ferdinand has greatly bettered the prospects of peace in Europe." Dissenting from the pessimistic viet. J. of other diplomats as to the results of the assassination at Scra-jevo, Sir Thomas Barclay, Great Britain's foremost international lawyer, said to-day there was every pros-pect that the war danger which hangs over Central Europe has been lessen-

WHOLE WORLD SHOWS ITS SYMPATHY FOR THE AUSTRIAN RULER.

ed by the assassination

VIENNA, June 29.-From all parts of the dual monarchy as well as from most foreign countries messages poured in to-day testifying to the painful impression produced throughout the world by the assassination of duke and his wife and reflect the sorrow and sympathy evoked among all classes by their terrible death.

When the old Emperor arrived at a suburban station from Ischi at 7 o'clock this morning he was greeted with cheers by large crowds. His Majesty, who drove in an open carriage to Schoenburnn Castle accomduke and his wife and reflect the When the old Emperor arrived at a suburban station from Ischl at 7 o'clock this morning he was greeted with cheers by large crowds. His Majesty, who drove in an open carriage to Schoenburnn Castle accompanied by a full staff of brilliantly uniformed officers, appeared to be in the best of health. He was received at the palace by the Archduke Charles Francis Joseph, the new heir apparent to the throne.

to the throne Although to-day was a holiday, the newspapers appeared and devoted their columns exclusively to yesterday's tragic event.

General expression was given by the press to the conviction that the peo-ples of the dual monarchy would rally ound the person of the Emperor, who was again giving an example of his heroism and indomitable determination and Russia, the protector of all the Serba.

WILSON SHOCKED BY THE MURDER OF

WASHINGTON, June 29 .- Presi-

WARNED OF DANGERS BEFORE GOING ON JOURNEY.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand was well aware of the danger he was running during his tour of Bosnis, which dark bullets was availabled by the royal fame.

An automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary:

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary:

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary:

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary:

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary:

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary:

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary:

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary:

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an automatic pistol and fired a fusiling message of condolence to the atrocio "Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand and consort at an assassin's hands. I extend to Your Majesty, to the royal family and to the Government of Austria-Hungary the sincere condolences of the Government and people of the United States and an expression of my own profound sympathy."

SLAIN ARCHDUKE WORE BULLET-PROOF COAT OF WOVEN SILK.

LONDON, June 29 .- According to he Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail the care which Prinzip showed in aiming at the head of the Archduke proves that "he had been carefully instructed, for it has been as well guarded secret that the Archduke always were a coat of slik strings weven obliquely and no weapon or bullet could plerce it.

"A strip of this material which was once tested on an automobile tire proved to be puncture proof."

BOARD OF MANAGERS TO TAKE CHARGE OF POLYCLINIC HOSPITAL

Change Will Come With In stallation of New Superintendent of Institution.

It was announced at the Polyclinic Hospital that on July 1 a new plan of almost exhausted his ammunition. management of the institution will be Constitutionalists are whispering will be a new superintendent and a with Carranza and establish himself new superintendent of nurses, but the as an independent leader. real change in the plan of management is in the catablishment of a cent to the "first chief" is reported Board of Managers.

The BBoard of Trustees and th their functions undisturbed, but the active management of the institution will be in a large degree taken up by

The new plan of management was evolved following the resignation on June 15 of John Gunn, who was superintendent for twenty years; and Miss Grace Allis, who had been superintendent of nurses for about a year. It was said at the hospital that it was realized that with the coming of a new superintendent, the Board of Trustees and the members of the faculty decided there was a good opportunity to start the new plan which had been thought of for some time. The Board of Management was then organized with Dr. Wyeth as President and the following members: Dr. D. Delavan, Dr. H. Katsenbach , Dr. K William Van Valzah Hayes and De

Charles H. Chetwood. The new superintendent of the institution will be Dr. Hames Hugh Norris, who was assitant manager at the Rockefeller Institute, and the super intendent of nurses will be Miss E. Leta Card, formerly superintendent of the Glens Falls Hospitals.

HURLS WAGON INTO HOLE.

Horse, However, Escapes and Make Wild Runsway.

A horse driven by Robert Dugan of No 903 Second avenue tookfright in Thirtyeighth street to-day at the sound of an automobile exhaust, boited, ran onto the ington avenue and Thirty-eighth stree and smashed into a fence surrrounding an excavation. Dugan jumped just be-fore the crash. The wagon smashed through the fence and fell into the hole, but the horse, breaking free of it, con-tinued down toward Third avenue, which it crossed, and was caught a block away.

CHARGED WITH USURY.

Philip Clarke Gives Ball in Tomb Police Court.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand and the Duchess of Hohenberg.

The newspapers to-day pay the warmest tributes to the late Archard at No. 154 Nassau street, this afternoon Street Police Court squad, arrested here. Aifredo Breceda, personal rep-Philip Clarke, a banker, doing business > Train Smashes Trolley; Six Hurt. SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 29 .- Siz persons were injured, three seriously when a Lake Shore train smashed an interurban car of the Chicago, South Bend and South Shore at a grade cross-ing of the two roads near here this afternoon.

BRITISH "WHOLE-HOGGERS."

to the conviction that the peof the dual monarchy would rally the person of the venerable ror, who was again giving an ple of his heroism and indomidetermination.

SON SHOCKED

BY THE MURDER OF

THE ARCHDUKE.

SHINGTON, June 29.—Prest-Wilson to-day sent the followWilson to-day sent the follow-

GEN. VILLA AGAIN CUTS ARMY LOOSE FROM CARRANZA

Comes Back to Torreon and Sends an Ultimatum to the "First Chief."

HE WANTS AMMUNITION.

Ceases All Military Operations Pending Reply From Gen. Carranza.

JUAREZ, Mexico, June 29.—That Gen. Francisc Villa's break with Gen. Venustiano Carranza has again become acute was the interpretation placed by Constitutionalists on the rebel chieftain's action yesterday in suddenly withdrawing his entire army from the Zacateons campaign. It is stated by men high in authority here that Villa has sent an ultimatum to Carransa and that all his military operations will cease pending a reply.

Villa and his staff have returned to Torreon. He announced that his 17,-000 soldiers had also been ordered back there. Despatches said Villa explained his failure to push on to Querataro after finding Aguas Calientes evacuated by declaring he had put into effect. On that date there that Villa intends to break altogether

The ultimatum he is said to have couched in vigorous terms. It demands, despatches say, that Villa be Faculty wil remain the same, with supplied immediately with his full share of the ammunition brought into Mexico through the port of Tampico and that he be allowed full use of the newly created board, which will the railroads in the so-called Carranbe presided over by Dr. John A. sa territory for carrying supplies to be presided over by Dr. John A. bis army. Villa's operations have clared so desperate that Gen. Huerta Wyeth, President of the Faculty and bis army. Villa's operations have clared so desperate that Gen. Huerta is said to have ordered Gen. Joaquin been seriously handicapped by the Mass to remain in the capital inrefusal of Carransa's followers to allow him the use of their railroads. They have repeatedly held up his shipments.

Carranza is en route from Monte rey to Nuevo Laredo. AGUAS CALIENTES, Mexico, June 29 .- When the Zaragoza brigade, under command of Gens. Aguirre Benavides and Raoul Madero, arrived here Sunday in pursuit of the fleeing Federals commanded by Gen. Medina Barron they found the city evacuated. Huerta's forces stopped only long enough to take a brief rest. Then they retreated to Quere-taro, where Gen. Barron will make his last stand. The Federals sacked Aguas Callentes before the evacua-

CARRANZA AGENTS URGE HIM TO ACT AT

WASHINGTON June 29 -Carranasking for time to consult his gener- Minnewaska. als who participated in the plans of Guadalupe before agreeing to enter the proposed peace conference, was said here not to have reached the mediators but that it probably would has a wife and daughter here. They get to Niagara Falls by to-morrow morning. Luis Cabrera, one of Carranza's agents said to-day he believed the General would yield to the wishes o the United States.

"The meeting would be a formal conference with the Huerta delegates and representatives of the United States," said Mr. Cabrera, "to carry out the purposes of the mediation proctocol. I think that we will have within a few days."

Continued reports of the widening of the breach between Villa and Carranza have served to disturb officials resentative of Caranza here, after a conference to-day with Cabrera, sent a telegram to the chief asking for definite word about the mediation conference as soon as possible. Awaiting a reply, Fernando iglesias Calder on, who came from Mexico as Carranga's friend, with a view to serving as one of his agents at the confer-ence, said he would remain in Wash-

1,000 MEN DESERT HUERTA'S ARMY AND JOIN THE VILLISTAS.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, June 29 .-Revolt of 1,000 Huerta troops at Queretaro and their desertion to the Villistas was reported here to-day by refugees who arrived from Mexico in the army of Gen. Mans, who fronted the Constitutionalist army fronted the Constitutionalist army at Queretaro. When the rebels ad-vanced near the Federal outskirts the whole first line of defense of Huerta's forces deserted to the en-

Noted Sportswoman of Newport Who Went Under Surgeon's Knife

City declared the Federal defeat at Zacatecas to be partially due to the revolt of Federal soldiers. These men BALLOU WAS ATTACKED are said to have fired on their own omrades. The situation at the front is destead of returning to take the com-mand at Queretaro, where efforts are being made to face the advance of the rebel army

ALLEGED THIEF BROUGHT

Tracked in London by His Advertisement for Rich

Wife.

Thomas A. Reid, for many years a of last year after the charge had been made that in ten years he had robbed his employers of $90,000, was brought ONCE ON MEDIATION. back to this city to-day from London by Detective Russo, of District-Attorney Whitman's staff. The detective sa's latest reply to the mediators, and his prisoner came in on the

He was traced to Canada, but there lived at No. 884 Seventieth street, Brooklyn, and Reid was a prominent member of the Bath Beach Marine and Field Club, and a crack golf BELGIAN MINISTER TO WED. thevaller de Waspenaert and Cuban Bride-Elect Get License.

Chevalier de Waepenaert, Minister from Belgium to the United States, and Mrs. Carmen R. King called at the definite word from Gen. Carranza Municipal Building this afternoon and obtained a marriage license. The wedding ceremony is to take place on July 11 in St. Patrick's Cathedral and Mgr. Il in St. Patrick's Cathedrai and Mgr. Lavelle will officiate.

The Chevalier is a big, soldierly man, fifty years of age and was born in Bel-gium. Mrs. King is a native of Cuba, Her maiden name was Carmen Roiz and her husband died two years ago. She gave her residence as the Hotel Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia.

KILLED HIMSELF WITH GAS. Hackensack Man Ends Life in Staten Island Hotel.

Louis Seitz, sixty-eight, who said h lived at No. 42 Johnson avenue, Hackensack, killed himself with gas in the Hotel Waldorf, South Beach, Stater Seitz, who seemed to be in com-fortable circumstances, registered at the hotel Friday night. He retired at 11 last night. His body was sent to an un-dertaking establishment in Stapleton, Le 1.

Frank Vojka, a footman in the em ploy of a wealthy West Side family, went to the bathroom of his home at Cuts Throat With Reser.

IN MRS. ANGLE'S FLAT. SAYS POLICE CHIEF

(Continued from First Page.)

from the stairway, has not yet com-

When Chief of Police Brennan last week took possession of the flatiron which has figured in the inquiry, it was standing on the ironing board. gation of the case. State's Attorney-He said: "The stains on the matting elect Homer S. Cummings has found under the ironing board in the room gray hairs matted in the spotted confidential employee of Chubb & have turned out to be blood. I blood on the skirt. Son, insurance brokers, No. 5 South have not quite finished with all the William street, who fled in April others, but I think now that, with decided it would have been impossible on the smoothening iron." BALLOU'S SON AND DAUGHTER HIRE DETECTIVES. ou, arrived here to-day to attend the nquest. He had been to New Hamp- blood. shire for the funeral of his father.

Young Mr. Ballou said that he and could have been done was for some his sister had employed detectives to one to wrap a cloth about the vicsupplement the work of the Stamford tim's bead. Mr. Cummings immediauthorities in getting to the bottom ately made a careful examination of of the mystery of the death of their the black skirt. father. They feel bitterly against Mrs. Helen M. Angle, in whose apartment lice say are identical in color and in the building Mr. Ballou had been visiting before his injury.

"We do not pretend to know," he said, "whether my father was murdered, but we mean to make every effort to find out. We do know that Mrs. Angle admits that she took my father, dying, from the stairway inside and threw him, helpless, on the ber father, Leonard Blondel, to the sidewalk, dumping him there so that police in the early investigation. Mrs. his feet were higher than his head. In the selfish fear of possible scanda she did not call help.

"My sister and I knew of my father's friendship for Mrs. Angle. We did not attempt to interfere in their acquaintance. We felt that he was old enough to know his own mind. They went about a great deal together, took their meals together constantly and he entertained her generously. Under those circum.

Chafing Dish Cooking. For a perfect seasoning always use EA&PERRINS

SAUCE

ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE It is delightful on Soupe, Fish Steaks, Rousts, and many dishes An Appetizer Sold by Grocers Everywhere

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS

why she should have treated him so heartlessly when he was mortally hurt. Our investigation may disciose

RIGHTED A WRONG.

Mr. Ballou said that he had met the police had misquoted her and Mrs. Angle and had never heard that that she did have the skirt on that Mr. Ballou said that he had met Mrs. Angie and had never heard that she had a violent temper. He was convinced, he said, that she was not a designing woman by the fact that his father's will made no mention of her; the dead man could easily have been persuaded to include her among his heirs if she had desired such a thing. Mr. Ballou said that he was very giad the newspapers had righted the wrong done by Mrs. Angie in her first hysterical statement when she said that his father had been intoxicated when he left her apartment.

What is likely to prove a sensational feature of the inquest is the announcement of the investigation and measuring of the footprints in blood leading up the stairs to Mrs. Angie's apartment from the spot where Ballou's body was round. Chief of Police Brennan and Coroner Phelan want to ask Mrs. Angie these questions:

Why, if nobedy else was in the apartment at the time Mrs. Angie these questions:

Why, if nobedy else was in the apartment at the time Mrs. Angie these questions:

Why, if nobedy else was in the apartment at the time Mrs. Angie these questions:

Why, if nobedy else was in the apartment at the time Mrs. Angie these questions:

Why, if nobedy else was in the apartment at the time Mrs. Angie these questions:

Why, if nobedy else was in the apartment at the time Mrs. Angie these questions:

Why, if nobedy else was in the apartment at the time Mrs. Angie these questions:

Why, if nobedy else was in the apartment, and the empty whiskey bettle that was in Mr. Ballou's jacket pocket when he was discovered. The police say it is revenient at the time first that the stains on the belief for the piano, and a small stain on the third rung of the ballustrade on the siting room, just to the left for the piano, and a small stain on the third rung of the ballustrade on the siting room, just to the left for the piano, and a small stain on the third rung of the ballustrade of the police and Mr. Cummi

Why did Mrs. Angle ask a mysterious caller at the home of a friend, where she has been since her release on $5,000 bail, to go to her apartment and destroy certain Where were Ballou's bloodstained and unbroken spectacles when the police made their first search of Mrs. Angle's apartments? Who is the strange man who is said to have been in the apartments either before or after Ballou was there Tuesday night? Who is the writer of the typewritten notes signed "C." and "Chas.," who hinted at a misunderstanding due to another woman?

Why did Mrs. Angle at first tell the police that Ballou was intoxicated when he fell down the stairs, and later declare he was not?

Why did she at first say she was olad only in her underwear and kimono when she carried Ballou's body part way down the stairs, and later admit she was wearing the blood spotted black skirt found in a drawer in her

The authorities regard the disclos ures of the footprint measurements as highly important. While most of BACK FROM LONDON floor of Mrs. Angle's apartment and the prints measure nine inches each from heel to toe, there is one, that of a left foot, that measures ten inches. The black skirt, too, is sure to play an important part in future investi-

Mr. Cummings and Chief Brennan possibly one or two exceptions, all for Ballou to have failen from the will prove to be blood. I have not third to the second stair landing of in the tennis tournaments, is one of finished the analysis of the stains the Rippowam Building, as Mrs. the Rippowam Building, as Mrs. beach, and was one of the organisers angle alleged, but they were at a of the mixed baseball games, playing loss to explain how his body could herself in the field have been brought from Mrs. Angle's Mrs. Douglas is a daughter of have been brought from to the Luther Kountze, of Kountze Bros. Harry Ballou, son of Waldo R. Bal- apartment on the third floor to the second without baving left a trail of

They decided that the only way this

When the gray hairs which the potexture with Ballou's-were found ground deeply into the stained cloth, the police believed they had discovered the clue they had sought. The theory is that Ballou's bead was wrapped in this garment.

Interesting in this connection are statements made by Mrs. Angle and ments and did not nave the black skirt on when she . ied Ballou's body to the street from the second When the character of these stains became apparent Mrs. Angle said that

MRS. DOUGLAS RALLIES AFTER OPERATION AT HER NEWPORT HOME

Wife of Banker Noted in Summer Life of Society for Her Devotion to Sports

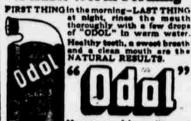

NEWPORT, R. L. June 29.-Mrs. J Gordon Douglas of New York, for seven years a leader in the gayety. in and out doors, of the summer life of Newport, is recovering from an operation for appendicitis performed on her at the Douglas cottage yesterday. Mrs. Douglas became ill early vesterday morning on her arrival from New York by train. She has been troubled with appendicitie before, having had a slight attack while in Newport in the summer of 1910. Mrs. Douglas was Miss Anna Kountze before her marriage to Mr. Douglas, a banker and member of the

New York Stock Exchange, at St. Thomas's Church, New York, April 4, 1907. Both she and her husband have been prominent for their devotion to outdoor sports. Mr. Douglas at one time was amateur racquet champton, winning the gold racquet trophy from Harold F. McCormick. of Chicago, in 1911. Mrs. I the most daring swimmers at the bankers, and has a home at Morris-town, N. J., near that of her father The Douglas residence in New York is at No. 392 Madison avenue.

"A Habit Worth Forming"

GEO. BORGFELDT & CO. New York, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco

CPARKLING—Refreshing—Delicious Sanitary Soda—Every process in the making and serving of our delightful Sodas.

Punches and Ices is characterized by an immaculate Cleanliness, which others deem unnecessary, but LOFT SANITARY SODA is Different. And that's one reason why it is different.

CHAMPAGNE WAFER Thin. crispy disks of golden Molasses Candy, imbedded with various chopped Nate.

POUND BOX 10C

Special for Tuesday
CHOCOLATE COVERBD EN SURPRISE—A rare treat, presenting as assortement of Chocolate Covered dainties in excellent variety of deligibility centres.
FOUND BOX With the Following: Let Us Tempt You

CREAMED GRENOBLE WALNUTS —A dainty little aandwich, composed of two Big Walnuts and a layer of rich sugar cream; van. the chocolate and maple da. 19CC 19C. — POUND TIN 54 BARCLAY STREET O CORTLANDT STREET

CHOCOLATE AND VAN. COCOANUT LISSES—The basis of this ewest is sugar cream and grated occasus, skilfnily blended and flavored van. and Chorolate 20C

206 BROADWAY

There T P M. St. 10 P M
147 NASSAU STREET

Clean 6.30 P M. St. 9 P M
266 WEST 125th STREET

Clean 11.30 P M Daily.
23 WEST 34th STREET

Clean 1 P M. Rat. 10 P M
149th ST. 4 THIND AV.
150 MARKET ST. 18 Daily.
157 MARKET ST. 18 Daily.
157 MARKET ST. 18 DAILY.
158 MARKET ST. 18 DAILY.
158 MARKET ST. 18 DAILY.
158 MARKET ST. 18 DAILY.
159 MARKET ST. 18 DAILY.
150 MARKET ST. 10 DAILY.
150 MARKET ST. 18 DAILY. PARK ROW & NASSAUST.

4000 BROOME STREET

Clows I M. M. 10 M.

SS EAST 2146 STREET

Clows 10 P.M. Daily.

472 FULTUN St. BROOKLYN

Grant 11.50 P. M. Daily.

The openified weight